

V. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

SOCIAL SECURITY

Eligibility for Social Security is authorized by Title II of the Social Security Act. The official name is Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance (OASDI). The amount of monthly income you may obtain from Social Security is determined by how much you have contributed to Social Security. It is not based on your financial need. In other words, if you have worked for a certain number of quarters and paid into the Social Security fund, you will be able to collect payments based on your contributions.

The Social Security Administration (SSA) has a toll-free number that operates from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Please have your social security number handy when you call. The contact information for SSA is:

(800) 772-1213 (Voice)

(800) 325-0778 (TTY)

There is a SSA website for frequently asked questions which is located at: ssa-custhelp.ssa.gov/cgi-bin/ssa.cfg/php/enduser/std_alp.php?p_sid=XJ9HspWilf.

If you still need additional help, you may write to the Office of Public Inquiries:

Contact the Social Security office nearest your residence to get more information about the various Social Security programs. To locate the office nearest your residence, you can access the online Social Security Office Locator at:
<https://secure.ssa.gov/apps6z/FOLO/fo001.jsp>.

SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY INSURANCE

Eligibility for Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) is also based on your earnings, those of your spouse or your parents. If you have worked for a certain length of time and become visually impaired, you may be eligible for SSDI. The SSA provides several pamphlets and brochures about its programs. You may want to contact the Social Security office nearest you to request these materials. A general overview of SSDI, as well as Supplemental Security Income (SSI), can be found at:
www.socialsecurity.gov/redbook/index.html.

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME

Eligibility for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) authorized by Title XVI of the Social Security Act, is based on financial need. The SSI program makes cash assistance payments to aged, blind, and disabled individuals (including children under age 18) who have limited income and resources. The amount that you may receive will depend on your income and resources. You may apply in person or over the telephone. A Social Security representative will complete the application for you and mail it to you for your signature. You should inquire at the Social Security office nearest you. Telephone numbers for Social Security offices are listed under United States Government, Department of Health and Human Services, in your telephone directory. A general overview of SSI qualifications can be found at:

www.socialsecurity.gov/redbook/index.html.

SSI and SSDI programs share many similar concepts and terms, but there are also several, very important differences in the rules affecting eligibility and benefit payments. Individuals may apply to both programs and some people are eligible for benefits under both SSI and SSDI. The term “concurrent” is used when individuals are eligible for benefits under both programs. Examples of concurrent benefits can be found at:

www.socialsecurity.gov/redbook/eng/supportsexample.htm.

TAX BENEFITS

People who are legally blind are eligible for a special deduction on their income taxes in addition to the standard deductions they may be entitled to. You will need a statement from your doctor affirming your visual impairment and it must be attached to your tax return. The amount of these fixed deductions depends on your filing status and the amount may vary from year to year. You may also be entitled to additional deductions based on your visual impairment. To view possible deductions, consult the Internal Revenue Service's "Tax Highlights for Persons with Disabilities" (Publication 907) at: www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p907.pdf.

FREE POSTAGE

The U.S. Postal Service allows visually impaired persons to send and receive books, recorded material, certain types of equipment and other mail free-of-charge if they are registered at the local post office. In the right top corner of the envelope, you will need to place the words "FREE MATTER FOR THE BLIND OR HANDICAPPED".

You may send for a copy of the pamphlet, "Mailing Free Matter for Blind and Visually Handicapped Persons" from the Office of the Consumer Advocate. The contact information for this office is:

DISABLED PARKING PLACARD

The DMV will issue a disabled parking placard to a visually impaired person. This placard is transferable from vehicle to vehicle whenever the person with sight loss is a passenger. It is usable in specially marked disabled parking spaces and will enable the driver to park free at parking meters. Permanent parking placards for permanent disabilities are valid for two years and there is a substantial penalty for misuse. There is no fee for a permanent parking placard, its replacement, or for a travel placard. Additional information about placards for disabled persons may be found at:
